January Facts...:

1 The Romans called this month “January” after their god “Janus” who was god of gateways. Janus had two similar heads so he could look at both directions; one head looking back at the old year and one looking forward towards the new year. The birth-stone for January is the garnet and the flower associated with this month is the carnation. More couples separate or divorce during January than in any other month...

February Facts....:

This month is named after a Roman purification ritual named "Februa". This ritual was an early spring cleaning festival. In Old English, February was named "Solmonath" (Mud Month) or "Kale-Monath" (Cabbage Month). The word "February" is the most common misspelled word in the English language! February is the only month that can pass without a Full Moon phase. This occurs in 2018...
